LOUISVILLE.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1899.
The Freedom of Cuba.

Time drags heavily with the downtrodden people of Cuba. The patriots have stood up for long and weary months against the myrmidons of Spain. A word from the Government of the United States would long since have made Cuba as free as any island in the seas. But the United States have chosen to not utter that word. Our simple recognition of them as belligerents would, ere this, have severed Cuba from Spain forever. And upon the administration at Washington may rest much of the blood that has been needlessly shed in the long, protracted war of Cubans against Spaniards.

While we have thus refused even to recognize the Cubans as belligerents, the Government of Peru has proclaimed Cuba free and independent. And it will not be long before the rest of the South American republics will follow Peru in the recognition of Cuba as a separate nationality. Of course, Mexico would follow such a move, and Cuba would thus stand free in the eyes of all of South America, except Brazil. Why the United States should stand with Brazil in thus withholding rights to which the Cubans have shown themselves entitled, it may be hard to understand. Still, the fact seems to be as stated.

We are informed, however, that negotiations are now going on between the Cubans, the Spaniards and ourselves, for the independence of the island. It is proposed by our Government that Spain shall admit the freedom of the Cubans without conditions, and that the Cubans shall pay Spain an hundred millions of dollars for Spanish property in the island; and that the Cubans shall declare the freedom of all their slaves. This being done, the United States offers to become the surety of Cuba for the payment of the hundred millions of dollars. Such are the terms, the Atlantic cable tells us, that are proposed by our country to Spain.

Spain, on the other hand, has some terms of her own. She wants the Cubans as a condition precedent to negotiations, to lay down their arms. Then she wants Cuba to undertake to pay her portion of the public debt, as well as for the property of Spain in the island. And then she wants a free election, in which the Cubans shall determine by a vote whether they want to separate from Spain and set up as an independent people. And on top of all this Spain requires the guaranty of the United States that the debt thus to be assumed by the Cubans will be paid as agreed.

There is a wide difference between the contracting, or rather, negotiating, parties; and yet there may be no differences that calm and astute negotiations may not reach. The negotiations having been once opened and entered into by Spain, indicates that they may end well for Cuba, even if both sides alter the propositions submitted. We think our government very badly represented by Gen. Sickles, in this matter, and yet we have hopes that good will come out of the negotiations, even in bad hands. If we had a great and good Minister at Madrid, there would be no doubt of a proper adjustment of the affair.

It is almost certain that if Spain does not take the hundred millions and admit the independence of Cuba that she will have to submit to the fact without a dollar. It does not seem probable that Spain can ever subdue the Cubans. Spain is bankrupt, and can neither raise the money nor the money to carry on war in Cuba. The Cubans seem determined to fight the battle begun, and if they are determined to go on they can hold out long enough to compel Spain to acknowledge their independence without paying an hundred millions therefor.

We rather suspect, however, that our own Government prefers being connected with the affair as security for the Cubans for the hundred millions. As guarantors of such a debt, we might get some hold upon the island that would in due time annex it to the United States as a part of our already opulent and extended territory. And to this we have no objection whatever. We think Cuba would, by its geographical position, be quite an important addition to our domain—far more important than the frozen regions of Alaska. Indeed, if we could at any time pay the hundred millions and take Cuba unto ourselves, we do not think the money would be ill spent. It is likely, however, that if we had long ago recognized the Cubans as belligerents, they would now be a free people, and would apply to us for annexation without the cost of an hundred millions. In any event, however, we do not think the future is very far distant when Cuba will be ours, and even if it shall cost us one hundred millions we can't say that it may not be worth the money. It is a rich and well located island, whose real value to this country would be difficult of estimation.

A LETTER from Cheyenne states that after twenty ballots had been thrown in the Wyoming Democratic Territorial Convention for delegate to Congress, the difficulty was settled by taking the names of the principal candidates, putting them in a hat, and shaking them up. The first one drawn was declared to be the choice of the convention.

Death of Senator Fessenden.

We regret that Senator Fessenden is dead. He was one of the few honest and reputable men in the Republican party. And although he lacked the nerve to oppose many of the monstrous measures of his party, it may be said to his credit that he endeavored to tone them down, that he might do as little harm as possible. His votes were often recorded with his party, but against his own judgment; but in the latter part of his Senatorial career he acted with the Conservatives, and took decided grounds against the Jacobin propositions of his party. It is said that Senator Fessenden's fatal illness was attributed in a great measure to the effects of poison received into his system at the National Hotel poisoning in 1857. Mr. Fessenden being one of the sufferers by that mysterious affair.

J. B. Wilder, Esq.

"Louisville" prints another slanderous communication as an "advertisement" in the Courier-Journal this morning; and the professor to do this work only for "the public good." We repeat, that he wrote an article (or more likely it was written for him) in which his praise of a certain dignitary was so fulsome that it was sickening and disgusting; he has slandered, and maliciously slandered, J. B. Wilder, than whom Louisville has no more reputable citizen—and all this he does for the public good, and pays a big price for the privilege! Out upon such hypocrisy and dishonesty. But these are covert attacks, instigated by interested parties, and they will recoil upon their wicked projectors.

Under the head of "By 1900 A. D.—What?" a writer in the current number of Appleton's Journal undertakes to forecast the future social and industrial condition of the United States. He predicts (1) that there will be no great war during the next thirty years; (2) that there will be an enormous increase of the wealth of the country; (3) that this wealth will be far more unequally distributed than it is now—that the rich will become very much richer, while the numbers of the wage-receiving class will be largely added to. In other words, instead of a population mainly composed of the middle-class, as is the case now, we shall have a very rich class and a great laboring, though not a poor class, in short, that the middle-class, so-called, will be greatly reduced in number as compared with the rest of the population. Assuming this state of affairs to exist, the writer inclines to believe that the close of the century will witness great industrial disturbances, unless the very rich recognize their social duties towards the rest of the community; in other words, that their wealth shall not be used for selfish purposes, but for the public weal. These speculations as to the future would be interesting and profitable if there were any means of verifying them; and, if it is true that the movements of society are subject to laws as invariable as those which control the planets, why, of course the time must come when that prime test of all science—prediction—will be true of them.

Private letters from Buenos Ayres explain the sensational story which appeared in certain New York papers about two weeks ago, to the effect that General McMahon had been "attacked" at the McMahon outposts on his way home from the camp of Lopez. There was no attack, but the allies (with the exception of the Brazilian General Polidoro) treated our Minister with marked discourtesy, and kept the carts containing his baggage standing for three hours in five feet of water. The Argentine papers went so far as to urge their government to search his baggage before he was allowed to leave the country. This extraordinary behavior—the more extraordinary as General McMahon had just saved the lives of a number of allied prisoners whom Lopez was about to execute—seems to have been inspired by a suspicion that the American Minister was bringing away treasure belonging to the Paraguayan President. He had a quantity of money with him, but it was the property of British subjects, which he had consented to transmit to England.

The Cincinnati Commercial has a correspondent at Washington who has been forecasting the next United States Senate. He thinks it probable that the trade-unions and anti-protectionists will get control of the Massachusetts Legislature and elect Colonel Greene, Democrat, to the Senate in place of Wilson; that neither Anthony nor Cragin will be re-elected; that Sidney Clarke is likely to come from Kansas in place of Ross; that Logan has the best chance to succeed Yates; that Judge Moses, of the State Supreme Court, will succeed Robertson, of South Carolina, and that Jesse D. Bright is the coming man from Kentucky.

The Scandinavians in Wisconsin have had three conventions, in which they have passed resolutions demanding of the Republicans a place for one of their number on the State ticket. The convention has just adjourned, and ignored the claims of the Scandinavians completely. The vote of that nationality in the State is estimated at twenty thousand, and the Democrats, who hold their convention next Wednesday, are going for it.

The carpet-bag thieves are falling out in Georgia, so there is a hope of honest men getting their dues. The State Treasurer has been used for swindling, at the instance of the carpet-bagger, Governor Bullock. The Treasurer, in return charges the Governor with stealing. Of course they both tell the truth.

The New York Tribune things "ex-Senator Gwynn ought to emigrate to Kentucky, as Jesse D. Bright has done." All right, send him on. The Kentucky Democracy take care of good Democrats. We will send Bright back to the United States Senate, and Gwynn also if he will come.

English traders are alarmed because China grows so good opium as India. Another war is necessary.

An irate Californian, in shaking off his allegiance to Radicalism, dubs Senator Stewart "the bull-driving statesman"—a mention of that rotten-borough Senator which brings to mind the circumstance that he has been foremost, ever since his insertion in the Senate, in the concoction of the nauseous amendments to the Constitution that have been from time to time put forth by the Radicals as props to their waning power. "Bull-driving" statesmanship is a good name for such a policy of brute force.

JUDGE CHASE has written a letter saying that he will not be a candidate for the Presidency, and desires that his name may be dissociated in men's minds with all political action.

Pretty Women. A comparatively few ladies monopolize the beauty as well as the attention of society. This ought not to be so, but it is, and will be while men are foolish and single out pretty faces for companions.

This can all be changed by using Hagan's Magnolia Balm, which gives the bloom of youth and a refined, sparkling beauty to the complexion, pleasing, powerful and natural. No lady need complain of a red, tanned, freckled or rustic complexion who will invest seventy-five cents in Hagan's Magnolia Balm. Its effects are truly wonderful.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Regular Habit of Body. Is absolutely essential to physical health and cleanliness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the blood through the arteries is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is CONSTIPATION. The use of the medicine which I have just mentioned, besides its beneficial effects in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants, such as an unpleasant breath, a yellow skin, contaminated blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory and general debility.

HOSPIETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant, or a tonic, or an antispasmodic, or a nerve, or a blood purifier, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, greatly stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristics that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the strongest.

HOSPIETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label, with our steel-engraved revenue stamp over the cork, is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

MANHOOD. And the "Vigor of Youth" restored in four weeks. Success guaranteed. Dr. RICHARD'S ESSENCE OF LIFE restores manly powers from whatever cause arising; the effects of early perverted habits, self-abuse, impotency and climatic give way to this wonderful medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions, which are very simple and require no restraint from business or pleasure. WINTERSMITH'S TONIC SIRUP.

—OR— IMPROVED

Chill Cure, A CERTAIN REMEDY FOR EVERY FORM OF

FEVER AND AGUE. THE CURE IS PERMANENT.

The Chill Once Broken Will Not Return.

Contains No Quinine or Arsenic, nor Any Deleterious Substance Whatever.

This preparation is carefully compounded of purely vegetable ingredients, and never fails, when properly taken, to cure the most obstinate case of fever and ague, neuralgia, and all malarious diseases. Unlike chill remedies generally, it requires no purgative to be taken with it, the medicine itself acting gently and agreeably upon the liver and bowels, effectually removing the cause of the disease, not merely temporarily checking it. Herein consists one great advantage it has over all other preparations. The crowning excellence of this remedy, however, above the permanency and certainty of its cure, is the fact that no injury whatever can arise from its use, as is certain to be the case when quinine or arsenic are taken, which are the principal ingredients of most of the chill medicines now in use. Quinine, acting upon the nervous system, produces, according to our best authorities, "a feeling of tightness or distension of the head, ringing, buzzing or roaring in the ears, partial deafness," &c., and, when the dose is increased, "complete deafness, diminution or loss of sight, dilated or immovable pupil, coma, and great prostration."

Wintersmith's Tonic Sirup leaves the system in a perfectly healthy condition, with no bad effects in any way to be worn off. Another great virtue claimed for this medicine, and wherein consists its superiority over other medicines, is that the cure is permanent. It rarely requires more than a day or two to effectually break the chill, and, once broken, they will not return.

Hundreds of letters are daily received testifying to the efficacy and wonderful virtues of this remedy. It is very popular wherever sold, taking the place of any chill remedy comes in competition with.

WINTERSMITH'S Tonic Sirup, IMPROVED CHILL CURE. Never Fails to Cure the Most Obstinate Case of Fever and Ague.

It Accomplishes the Work by Removing the Cause of the Disease.
